Brothers and sisters,

Woodlawn will be hosting another blood drive on Monday, May 18. Donations can be made from 2:00 – 5:30. Versiti / Blood Center of Wisconsin is in desperate need of donors and our Church Council agreed to keep our scheduled donation date. Their reply was: Yay! Thank you SO much for your support and partnership through these awful and uncertain times. Many people are hurting and we hope to ease the burden. There will obviously be extra safety measures in place and the drive will be held in the gymnasium to spread things out for safe distancing. You need to sign up on line at this link: <https://bit.ly/woodlawnheroes2020> Every attempting donor will receive a coupon for $4 off at Noodles & Co.

If you want to join our Wednesday Bible Class it's not too late! We meet on Wednesdays at 3:00 and 7:00pm using ZOOM teleconferencing. Contact one of the pastors for the link.

This from Northwestern Publishing House: On Thursday, May 7 at 10:00 AM CT, NPH will offer an online Mother's Day Story Time on our YouTube channel. We'll be reading the book Button Visits Grandma, a fun story about loving and obeying parents and grandparents, from the Buttons Collection, along with two other stories. You and your children or grandchildren will want to check out this exciting video!

Keep the following in your prayers:

Lois Leikam is back in the hospital. She is in the coronary ICU at Froedtert, but is alert and responsive.

Ken Bourassa is expected to come home on Friday after several weeks of rehab at St. Luke's. We pray that he continues to progress.

Our sister in Christ, Laverne Rupnick, was called home to heaven last Saturday at the age of 92. The private service for just the immediate family is scheduled for next Thursday. Keep her daughter, Linda Kapsos, and the rest of the family in your prayers.

That's all for now. Stay safe and God's blessings!
